Dear Renjith Thomas,

Thank you for your recent application for an RSC Research Fund grant (R21-6353238377). Following assessment by our reviewers, I am pleased to inform you that your application has been successful and you have been awarded £4000 for your project "QM/MM modelling of deexcitation dynamics after photo-excitation in solution of photosensitisers used in photodynamic therapy".

We will be happy to pay your grant directly to your institution's bank account by BACs. Please confirm your acceptance of this grant and provide us with the payment details using the online form by 13 August 2021:

<https://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/Payment-information>

The funds provided should only be spent on those items listed in your application and should not be used to support coursework or other persons within your institution.

Please note that a condition of the Research Fund is that you send a report on the work undertaken and results obtained. We will be in touch with you about this in August 2022.

We would also be very grateful if you could complete the following diversity monitoring form:

<https://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/A7EG38/>

You may have already filled out this anonymous form after your grant application. However, by completing this again, you will help us to monitor the diversity of our grant recipients as well as applicants. All responses are strictly confidential and all questions are optional.

When acknowledging your Research Fund grant in any publication, please use your application ID (R21-6353238377).

Congratulations on your successful application!

K.N. RAJ TEACHING GRANT FELLOWSHIP

Dr. Anila Skariah
St. Berchmans College,
Changanassery

March 03, 2020

Dear Dr. Anila Skariah

I am delighted to inform you that you have been awarded the K.N. Raj Teaching Grant Fellowship for the year 2020-21. The fellowship is awarded from a generous grant that the Centre had received from the Government of Kerala for improving the quality of undergraduate teaching of Economics in universities and its affiliated colleges in Kerala. The fellowship is aimed to enrich your teaching capabilities and preparing teaching materials. The conditions attached to the fellowship are as follows:

1. The Fellowship is awarded for the year 2020-21 starting from April 1st 2020 to March 31st, 2021.
2. During the period of award, the fellowship holders are expected to spend 30 days at CDS, either continuously or with breaks.
3. During the period of award, the fellowship holders are expected to spend their time at CDS preparing teaching materials in the topic that they had applied for the fellowship.
4. The fellowship holders would be assigned to mentors who are faculty at the Centre.
5. At the end of the fellowship period, the fellowship holders are expected to submit a copy of the prepared teaching material to the K.N.Raj Library, CDS.
6. The fellowship consists of a consolidated cash award of Rs 50000/- (Rs. Fifty Thousand only) which has to be utilized within the stipulated period and according to the conditions specified below.
7. Of the total sum, Rs 25000 (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) may be spent on buying books. This would be disbursed as two tranches. The first tranche can be availed as advance amount of Rs. 15000/-. The second tranche of Rs. 10000/- would be released on production of bills for both the first and second tranche.
8. The remaining Rs 25000 (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) may be spent for your visit to CDS as part of the fellowship under the following heads on reimbursement basis.
  - a. Travel from your place of usual residence to and from CDS
  - b. Food and accommodation at the CDS guest house.

We do hope that the fellowship will enhance your efforts to place your teaching on the sure path to academic excellence of your college.

Sunil Mani
