Dear Madam/Sir,

When we are in search of a place where history comes to life, where the labyrinth of books give a mysterious silence and a faint aroma of knowledge, where books impart to use a cultural heritage, libraries are there to answer our call. In this era the role of libraries has moved from a passive stock of books to an active interaction with readers identifying the complex areas to navigate in. As an attempt to amplify outreach efforts, to familiarize one with advanced methods of gathering information from digital resources, to give awareness regarding ethical practices in academic writing and to accustom one to the effective ways of managing citation, the Department of Economics, S.B College is organising a One day Workshop on "Academic Writing: New Perspectives" on 7th January 2020 at the college. About the Seminar

Functional analysis, is a branch of mathematical analysis dealing with functionals. It has originated from classical analysis. The impetus came from applications: problems related to ordinary and partial differential equations, numerical analysis, calculus of variations, approximation theory, integral equations, and so on. In ordinary calculus, one deals with limiting processes in finite-dimensional vector spaces (\mathbb{R} or \mathbb{R}^n), but problems arising in the above applications require a calculus in spaces of functions (which are infinite-dimensional vector spaces). Functional analysis plays an important role in the applied sciences as well as in mathematics itself.

The seminar will bring together scholars, young researchers, teachers, as well as post graduate students to discuss recent advances in Functional Analysis and explore its potentials in various disciplines. The seminar will help students to get motivated to the subject and young researchers to get a clear vision on recent advances.

BERCHMANS INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES (BIMS)

BIMS Celebrates 25 years of extending knowledge and changing lives.

This Institute is affiliated to Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala, offers calibrated Autonomous curriculum for its two year full time Master of Business Administration (MBA) Programme, which is recognized by All India Council for Technical Education, New Delhi.

Berchmans National Conference 2020

The value chain ecosystem, the platform based ecosystem, distributed ecosystem and the marketplace ecosystem are catalyzed by the digital & technology explosion. Not all future business is going to be driven by technology alone. It requires fundamental business models to sustain its purpose of existence.

The term "ecosystem" in business conversations creates a semantic asymmetry among the business paradigms. The urge to reinvent the conceptual clarity of the terminology "ecosystem" in the business scenario is the need of the hour. Thus the conference is intended to examine the "Evolving Business Ecosystem and Emerging Business Models."

Learners, academicians, industrialists and researchers of business practices should keep in pace with the evolving business ecosystem to gain competencies for the future business demands, not renouncing the past wisdom. This industry-academic conference provides a platform to investigate the existing business models, stimulate the current business models with novel perspectives.

REFLECTIVE RESEARCH CONCLAVE | 27 FEBRUARY 2020

As part of Silver Jubilee Celebrations, BIMS is organizing a post conference reflective research conclave on 27 February 2020. Research contributions are invited from students and research scholars.
