Details For Registration

To help minimize the impact of the coronavirus outbreak on students, the Coursera community is launching an effort to deliver their online courseware free of charge to their partner institutions around the world, of which, we are happy to announce, St. Berchmans College is now one.

Coursera offers around 3800 courses from over 400 specialisations through many leading global university partners

You can register for these courses now and licenses are valid till July 31, 2020. (Once registered, you can complete your courses till September 30, 2020)

We have a limited number of licenses available for the students of St. Berchmans College and we urge you to make use of this opportunity.

Interested students may register yourselves by providing your Full Name, email address and External IDs at this link:

<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/15Y7aG1xbECNwi78yKfCUYdk61Kzot-c2FMSW27E5Vqc/edit?usp=sharing>

Your External ID should be the Programme you are studying in the college, followed by your semester number in Roman Numerals.

Coursera is an American online learning platform founded in 2012 by Stanford professors Andrew Ng and Daphne Koller that offers massive open online courses, specializations, and degrees.

Details For Registration Continue

For example, if you are a fifth semester B.Sc. Chemistry student, your External ID should be B.Sc.Chemistry.Sem.V or M.A.M alayalam.Sem.II, if you're a second semester Post Graduate Student of Malayalam etc). When generating your external IDs, use the period key ("full stop") instead of spacing between characters.

Once we have your details, we can add you to the licenced program and you'll get an email from us. You'll be able to register for Coursera classes by clicking the Join Now link that will be sent to your registered email. You can register for the courses till the 1st of May 2020. Remember, there are only a limited number of licences and therefore access will be on a first-come, first-served basis. You are also strongly advised to follow through your course once you register for the programme. If it is discovered that the coursework is not followed up by the participant, we might remove you from the programme and offer your slot to someone else.
