

Anti – Ragging Policy

Responsible Executive	Convener, Anti – Ragging Cell, St. Berchmans College
Responsible Office	Anti – Ragging Cell and Office of the Principal

1. Statement of Policy

Ragging is a disturbing reality in the higher education system of our country. Despite the fact that over the years ragging has claimed hundreds of innocent lives and has ruined careers of thousands of bright students, the practice is still perceived by many as a way of ‘familiarization’ and an ‘initiation into the real world’ for young college-going students. This Policy envisages to curb the act of ragging in any form in the campus and its premises.

2. Objective of this Policy

Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

- 2.1 Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student.
- 2.2 Indulging in rowdy or indiscipline d activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student.
- 2.3 Asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student.
- 2.4 Any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher.
- 2.5 Exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
- 2.6 Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students
- 2.7 Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- 2.8 Any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student.
- 2.9 Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student any act of physical or mental abuse (including bullying and exclusion) targeted at another student (fresher or otherwise) on the ground of colour, race, religion, caste, ethnicity, gender (including transgender) sexual orientation , appearance, nationality, regional origins, linguistic identity, place of birth, place of residence or economic background(Third Amendment 2016) with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.
- 2.10 The objective of this policy is to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging in our campus and its premises.

3. Individuals and entities affected by this policy

All students of St Berchmans College come under the purview of this policy

4. Responsibilities

The college shall take different measures to ensure that ragging in any form is deterred in the campus.

- 4.1 College will not permit or condone any reported incident of ragging in any form; and shall take all necessary and required measures, including but not limited to the regulations under this policy, to achieve the objective of eliminating ragging, within the institution or outside.
- 4.2 College shall take action in accordance with the regulations under this policy against those found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, actively or passively, or being part of a conspiracy to promote ragging.
- 4.3 Every public declaration of intent by the college in any electronic, audio visual or print or any other media, for admission of students to any course of study shall expressly provide that ragging is totally prohibited in the institution, and anyone found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, whether actively or passively, or being a part of a conspiracy to promote ragging, is liable to be punished in accordance with these regulations as well as under the provisions of any penal law for the time being in force.
- 4.4 The telephone numbers of all the important functionaries in the institution, including but not limited to the Head of the institution, faculty members, members of the Anti-Ragging Committees and Anti-Ragging Squads, District and Sub- Divisional authorities, Wardens of hostels, and other functionaries or authorities where relevant, shall be published in the brochure of admission/instruction booklet or the prospectus.
- 4.5 The application for admission, enrolment or registration must be accompanied by an Anti-Ragging affidavit signed by a student in a prescribed format and another Anti Ragging Affidavit signed by a Parent/Guardian.
- 4.6 Any distress message received at the Anti-Ragging Cell shall be simultaneously relayed to the Head of the Institution, the Warden of the Hostels, the Nodal Officer of the affiliating University, if the incident reported has taken place in an institution affiliated to a University, the concerned District authorities and if so required, the District Magistrate, and the Superintendent of Police
- 4.7 On receipt of the recommendation of the Anti-Ragging Committee or on receipt of any information concerning any reported incident of ragging, the Head of institution shall immediately determine if a case under the penal laws is made out and if so, either on his own or through a member of the Anti-Ragging Committee authorised by him in this behalf, proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR), within twenty four hours of receipt of such information or recommendation, with the police and local authorities, under the appropriate penal provisions.
- 4.8 The Anti – Ragging Committee shall maintain an appropriate data base to be created out of affidavits, affirmed by each student and his/her parents/guardians and stored electronically by the institution, either on its or through an agency to be designated by it; and such database shall also function as a record of ragging complaints received, and the status of the action taken thereon.

5. Punishment and Procedure

College shall punish a student found guilty of ragging after following the procedure and in the manner prescribed here in under:

5.1 The Anti-Ragging Committee of the institution shall take an appropriate decision, in regard to punishment or otherwise, depending on the facts of each incident of ragging and nature and gravity of the incident of ragging established

5.2 Depending on the nature and gravity of the guilt established, the Anti-Ragging Committee may recommend the principal to award, one or more of the following punishments, to those found guilty, namely;
